Regarding: Rejecting Chase Binding Arbitration Agreement

To Whom It May Concern:

On 26 October 2021, I received written communication from JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., explaining certain changes to the terms of my customer relationship. Among those changes is a new binding arbitration provision with an opt-out notice.

Please note that I REJECT the Chase Binding Arbitration Agreement effective December 11, 2021. Please confirm receipt of this rejection and annotate my account(s) appropriately.

I reject forced arbitration of future disputes relating in any way to my relationship with JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., Chase Bank USA, N.A., and all parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and related entities ("Chase"). I reserve my right to litigate all claims against Chase — including collective actions — in court.
